Care Giver Support Program

A QUICK REFERENCE GUIDE

A reimbursement program provided to assist caregivers for expenses they may incur for supplies and home services.

CARE GIVER SUPPORT PROGRAM (CSP)

The CSP is a reimbursement program provided to assist caregivers for expenses they may incur for supplies and/or some in -home services they purchase to provide care for another individual (the care receiver).

The care receiver must need routine assist with Activities of Daily Living (ADL's) and the caregiver, at a minimum, must assume primary responsibility for the provision/coordination/management of care in order for this program to be applicable.

FINANCIAL GUIDELINES

There are financial guidelines that govern CSP. The household income of the care receiver is used to determine the percentage of reimbursement approved for a caregiver up to a monthly cap amount. Many caregivers use the reimbursement benefit to assist with expenses for supplies like incontinence products, over the counter medications and products, nutrition supplements and/or services like Personal Care or Respite care provided by an Agency or private hire. The program also provides a lifetime grant of $2000 to purchase eligible and preapproved assistive devices and/ or home modifications.
